

From Disability Rights to Disability Justice: A Response to the Pandemic "ADA Every Day"

Virtual events held every day from July 26-September 28th via Zoom

"Available Across the Country"

Learn, engage, be inspired. Explore our arts, history, and political impact. Understand how COVID-19 has had unique consequences to our community. Meet activists, athletes, musicians and dancers, academics, filmmakers, educators, and just everyday folk who share your experiences and feel your joys and challenges. Discover our common bonds and learn about the vibrant worlds of people with disabilities. FREE!

You must preregister for every event at

<https://www.eventbrite.com/o/michigan-ada-30-269743076>

or purchase a t-shirt, skip registration, and get a daily email with password and upcoming schedule <https://www.teddyTs.com/shop/ada-30/>

Sponsored by Michigan Arts Access, and Great Lakes ADA Center

For more information, contact:
Susan Fitzmaurice 248-767-2217
susanfitzm@gmail.com <https://www.mi-ada.org>